The "subway" was called Subway as the name says, but a local fast-food restaurant. The size of the restaurant is decent, I could fit all the people that worked there into the restaurant comfortably. They were pretty tight on the location of the restaurant. The only time I got an image that the staff probably liked was the one where I am going around in circles taking a picture of the restaurant, they also probably liked the one where I was taking ca3bfb1094
